What People Say About This Workshop	Extract from hundreds of testimonials collected from various universities and colleges. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Very informative and educational, but fun. Enjoyed immensely! I will think about and be more patient with others in the future, especially as a floor RA.</li> <li>2. I really enjoyed the lessons presented by Papa Ngomsi. The diversity lesson involved would be very beneficial to me as a hall director in presenting a different way of looking at culture.</li> <li>3. Papa Ngomsi was very wise, thoughtful and charismatic. His facilitation skills were exceptional. I enjoyed his personal stories and self-deprecating humor. I think he really helped everyone to start to see things out of different "lenses."</li> <li>4. I gained a better understanding of how those of other cultures and we ourselves may perceive situations differently.</li> <li>5. This was excellent. It has opened my eyes. Thank you!</li> </ol>
Just a reminder!	Tolerance is the greatest gift of the mind; it requires the same effort of the brain that it takes to balance oneself on a bicycle. Helen Keller
